PUBLIC CABLE TELEVISION AUTHORITY HONORED WITH NOMINATIONS FOR EXCELLENCE IN LOCAL TELEVISION PROGRAMMING

Local Agency Receives Nominations in Multiple Categories at 22nd Annual Star Awards

The Public Cable Television Authority (PCTA) has been honored with four nominations for the 22nd Annual Star Awards, presented by the States of California and Nevada chapter of the National Association of Telecommunications Officers and Advisors (SCAN-NATOA). The Star Awards honor excellence in broadcast, cable, and electronic programming produced by local government agencies throughout California and Nevada. Winners will be announced at a ceremony in Universal City on May 24. PCTA's nominated programs and their categories are:

"Fountain Valley's 60th Anniversary: Ed Arnold" – Public Service Announcement

"Wow! That's in OC: Naugles" – Economic Development

"Young at Heart" – Senior Citizen Audience

"PCTA Website" – Channel Website

"Fountain Valley's 60th Anniversary: Ed Arnold," produced by C. Sue Braun, is a thirty-second public service announcement highlighting the City of Fountain Valley's 60th anniversary. "Young at Heart," also produced by Braun, spotlights senior citizen activities in the cities of Fountain Valley, Huntington Beach, Stanton and Westminster. "Wow! That's in OC: Naugles," produced by Paul Silva, looks at the comeback of the semi-legendary fast food eatery, with locations in Huntington Beach and Fountain Valley.

The Public Cable Television Authority (PCTA) produces exclusive local television programming for the cities of Huntington Beach, Fountain Valley, Westminster, and Stanton. PCTA programming can be seen on Spectrum, Frontier FiOS, and AT&T U-Verse, or online via its member cities' websites.
